Muzrai Superintendent in Mysore,

BANGALORE.

Sir,

I intend to tender a Deepasara (herewith sent for kind inspection) as an offering to the Sri Subrahmanyaswami Temple at Ghati, Doddaballapur Taluk; and I request you -- will be pleased to allow me to have it fixed up and consecrated at my cost over the entrance of the Garbhagudi at -- the earliest auspicious day in the course of a month.

2. It is also my intention that the Deepasara - - should be kept lighted with Gingilee oil daily and on special days as hereunder:-

EVERY DAY.

One lamp - the central one on the top line for 2 hours from Sun-set.

SPECIAL DAYS.

(a) All Shastis.
(b) All the 7 days of Pushya Suddha Shasti festival
(c) All Mondays of Kartika month.	All the 27 lamps for four hours from Sunset.

(e) Sivaratri.

3. By actual trial I have claculated that to keep up the lighting as above, 2½ maunds of oil will be required for the whole year, perhaps a little more allowing for incidental wastage. To meet the cost of the oil and sundry expenses for wick, etc., I shall lodge with the Government a -- Mysore Loan Bond of 1920 to the value of Rs.500/- so that the interest thereon at 6½ per cent amounting to Rs.31-4-0 a year may be utilized for the maintenance of the lighting. The -- Bond will be endorsed in favour of the Dewan of Mysore so --- that at the end of 20 years the Government may deal with the investment in such manner as they may then deem fit for purposes of lighting in the Institution.

4. I request that you will be pleased to favour me with early orders accepting the endowment for the benefit of the Temple.
